Showing you how to make Chirashi-zushi

Chirashi-zushi

In Japan, people often eat chirashi-zushi at home during spring on celebratory occasions. People also eat it as an everyday meal.

Chirashi-zushi is vinegared rice topped with assorted ingredients, like seafood, egg, and vegetables.

Recipe

Ingredients for 4 servings

1. Prepare vinegared rice - 2 cups.
2. Crack 2 eggs into a bowl with a little salt, and beat them until they turn a pale yellow color.
3. Heat up a pan and put vegetable oil into the pan.
4. Pour the eggs into the pan and make a thick omelette. When it's ready, remove from the pan onto a cutting board.
5. Remove from heat and place in a container.
6. Put toppings onto the vinegared rice from step 1. Sparkle ikura, white sesame, chives, and seaweed on top of the rice.
